A Dedication

Why should I smile?
—let me count the ways . . .

Family, friends, flattering fame . . .
embarrassment, joy, shame . . .
it’s all life and it’s worth our while . . .

The least we could all do is smile.

The wind blowing cool refreshing gusts through my clean, curly unkempt hair, I feel free, I feel light—I feel good—and I smile.

All the boys downtown who loved that smile from Glen the innocent lad—now frown—now turn—“hey—he’s gone bad” . . .
“he’s got no job, he’s got no school,
how in the hell will he find the tools to make it like we have in the tough frowning world” . . . I can read their minds, I can see their eyes so I turn, and smile, and breathe the smog and smile, and “waste” my money and smile.

and I think of the one tool I have that can repair more damage than armies from the west . . . and I smile.

I work with a smile, I listen with a smile—and often it spreads—and I feel successful somehow—but along with that I was told that one dies as one has lived and more than anything in life I want but one thing in death . . . I want to smile as I’ve gone, and I want that smile to live forever . . .

G.D.S.
Graduating with the seniors to become Deputy Commissioner for Higher Education, the State Education Department, Mr. Couper will be greatly missed as respected friend to the many students who came to know him.
